of Damodar Dass Scholarships (Vide Copy of the Rules put up Rule VIII) As Sreenivasachariya had already left for England at the time of granting the Scholarship he was not given passage money-

10/6/10

2 It is ascertained that there is no precedent of a Scholarship-holder having been granted passage money, when, at the time of awarding the Scholarship, he had already arrived at his destination and commenced the course of studies After enjoying the scholarships for the periods sanctioned and Completing their studies successfully, the Scholarship-holders would be entitled to get passage money for return to his country but whether they may be paid for passage expenses they have already incurred is matter for orders
